SpongeBob Synopses
(Last Update 1/22/08)

1A - HELP WANTED
Encouraged by his best friend, Patrick Starfish, SpongeBob overcomes his fears and finally applies for that dream job as a fry cook at the Krusty Krab. Challenged by the owner, Mr. Krabs, and his assistant Squidward, to prove himself worthy of the job, SpongeBob rises to the occasion, with the help of one very special spatula, by feeding a sea of ravenous anchovies.

1A Extension - REEF BLOWERS
SpongeBob's tendencies toward the extreme are highlighted in this four minute short. In an attempt to keep his yard meticulous, Squidward picks up the single shell sitting in an otherwise perfect lawn and tosses it over to SpongeBob's yard. Finding the perfect use for his electric, high powered 'reef blower,' SpongeBob goes to work. Squidward had no idea what chaos lay in store for his quiet afternoon at home.

1B - TEA AT THE TREEDOME
When SpongeBob meets Sandy Cheeks for the first time, she invites him over to her glass enclosed home. SpongeBob finds the biodome is full of air, something he's never experienced before. As SpongeBob discovers air actually dries up his porous body, he struggles to impress his new friend in this foreign environment.

2A - BUBBLESTAND
SpongeBob introduces Patrick and Squidward to his unique talent, the art of bubble blowing. After first turning his nose up at this plebeian pastime, Squidward accepts the challenge and attempts to surpass SpongeBob's level of expertise. Squidward's plan to humiliate SpongeBob completely "blows up" in his face.

2B - RIPPED PANTS
When SpongeBob tries to impress Sandy Cheeks at Mussel Beach, he accidentally rips his pants. SpongeBob is embarrassed until he realizes the beach crowd thought he jokingly did it on purpose. SpongeBob's ripped pants are the hit of the beach, until he pushes the joke too far.

3A - JELLYFISHING
When SpongeBob and Patrick find Squidward is recovering from a bicycling accident, SpongeBob and Patrick decide to take Squidward jellyfishing with them so that he can have his "best day ever." Good intentions notwithstanding, SpongeBob and Patrick thrust poor Squidward into the far more hazardous rigors of their favorite pastime.

3B - PLANKTON!
SpongeBob falls victim to a scheme by the evil Plankton, Mr. Krabs' minuscule arch-rival with the Napoleon complex. Plankton hides out in SpongeBob's head and takes control of his brain. SpongeBob finds he must fight his own body to prevent himself from handing over the secret Krabby Patty recipe to Plankton.

4A - BOATING SCHOOL
It's exam time again at Mrs. Puff's Boating School. SpongeBob, in his never ending quest to pass the boat driving section of the exam, turns to Patrick for help. The two come up with the brilliant idea of planting a walkie-talkie in SpongeBob's head so that Patrick can direct him from afar. All goes well until SpongeBob realizes he may be cheating!

4B - NAUGHTY NAUTICAL NEIGHBORS
In order to get peace and quiet, Squidward plays a cruel joke on SpongeBob and Patrick which makes the two believe they are no longer friends. But the joke backfires on Squidward when SpongeBob and Patrick relentlessly compete with Squidward to be his new "best friend". To get relief, Squidward is forced to reunite the feuding SpongeBob and Patrick.

5A - PIZZA DELIVERY
Mr. Krabs has SpongeBob and Squidward go above and beyond the call of duty to make the first successful Krabby Patty pizza delivery. When the two become stranded in the desert, SpongeBob has to prevent the starving Squidward from eating the pizza before they deliver it.

5B - HOME SWEET PINEAPPLE
Losing his pineapple house to parasites, SpongeBob finds himself relying on his neighbors in order to remain in his neighborhood. After disastrous stays with Patrick and Squidward, SpongeBob must move back with his parents. Eulogizing his pineapple, SpongeBob plants a tiny 'pebble' from it. But wait, that's no pebble – it's a seed!

6A - MERMAIDMAN AND BARNACLEBOY
Watching their favorite show, reruns of the TV duo superhero show Mermaidman and Barnacleboy, SpongeBob and Patrick hear that their beloved heroes are living in a nearby retirement home. The aging superheroes discover their toughest challenge yet will be SpongeBob and Patrick, who have decided the duo must come out of retirement.

6B - PICKLES
SpongeBob loses his self-confidence when an arrogant customer wrongfully claims SpongeBob forgot to put pickles on his Krabby Patty. With his perfect record now ruined, SpongeBob quits his job as he begins doubting his ability to do even the simplest task. Without SpongeBob, the restaurant fails to attract customers. When SpongeBob learns the Krusty Krab is in dire straits, he returns from the skids to save the Krusty Krab in an ultimate show down with the arrogant customer.

7A - HALL MONITOR
It's time to pick this weeks Hall Monitor at Mrs. Puff's Boating School and much to her dismay, it's SpongeBob's turn. The overzealous SpongeBob assumes the mantle of authority and extends it's jurisdiction beyond the school yard to include the environs of all Bikini Bottom. SpongeBob unwittingly wreaks havoc on the unsuspecting citizenry.

7B - JELLYFISH JAM
Over the repeated warning of his friends, SpongeBob takes a wild jellyfish home from Jellyfish Fields. To his dismay, SpongeBob discovers that jellyfish multiply quickly, and they take over his house. The cause is lost until SpongeBob finds that jellyfish love disco music. SpongeBob becomes the Pied Piper of Disco and learns that wild creatures are best left in the wild.

8A - SANDY'S ROCKET
Sandy Cheeks has taken on the enviable mission of taking a rocket ship into outer space. Sneaking in for a look, SpongeBob and Patrick accidentally launch Sandy's rocket and mistakenly think they have landed on the moon. To make their mission a success, they decide to capture what they think are "aliens" - the residents of Bikini Bottom.

8B - THE SQUEAKY BOOTS
Mr. Krabs surreptitiously gives SpongeBob a pair of squeaky boots in lieu of pay. No problem. SpongeBob loves them and learns to master the squeaking noise to a new height of communication. Krabs' conscience haunts him as the squeaking noise drives him crazy.

9A - NATURE PANTS

After suffering through some unusually rough days at work, SpongeBob decides to leave his industrialized life and "live off the land" with the jellyfish in JellyFish Fields. A rough day on the job, however, is nothing compared to a rough day of trying survive in nature amongst the jellyfish. SpongeBob is forced endure cold nights, bad food, and being pursued by the jellyfishing Patrick!

9B - OPPOSITE DAY
Fed up with SpongeBob and Patrick, Squidward decides to sell his house and move. Worried no one will buy it if they see what their neighbors will be really like, Squidward fools them into thinking it's 'opposite day,' and they must do the opposite of their usual behavior. No such luck, however. With those two, the opposite of crazy is still crazy.

10A - CULTURE SHOCK
There's a talent show at the Krusty Krab and Squidward takes over the planning. SpongeBob, wanting to do his part as well impress his parents, offers to do anything. Squidward, afraid of disaster by putting SpongeBob on stage, delegates him to sweeping up. But determination will pay off for SpongeBob when he becomes the Grand Finale.

10B - F.U.N.
After another failed attempt by the evil Plankton to steal a Krusty Krabs' Krabby Patty, SpongeBob reasons that Plankton is just lonely and needs a friend, that's why he's so evil. After SpongeBob befriends Plankton, the two engage in a variety of friendship activities. Unfortunately, Mr. Krab's must show SpongeBob Plankton's true colors.

11A - SQUIDWARD, THE UNFRIENDLY GHOST
SpongeBob and Patrick accidentally hit 'Squidward' with a flying shell, thinking they knocked him out. They place what is really a wax replica next to the heater, melting him. When a talcum-covered, real Squidward emerges from the bathroom, the boys think it's a ghost. Squidward sees this as his great chance to get the two to leave him in peace.

11B - MUSCLEBOB BUFFPANTS
SpongeBob finds Sandy's rigorous physical training program too tough and chooses the easy way out by ordering a pair of fake 'bulky arms' as seen on TV. Fooling everyone with his new muscles, SpongeBob finds out there's no substitute for hard work when Sandy enters them both in the Muscle Beach Anchor Toss competition.

12A - THE CHAPERONE
When Mr. Krab's daughter Pearl is stood up for her prom, SpongeBob agrees to step in. Not wanting Pearl to feel bad about her date, SpongeBob tries to make himself tall, dark and handsome. His efforts cause much embarrassment and Pearl is distraught but not as much as SpongeBob. Pearl is finally able to see SpongeBob for the great guy that he is.

12B - EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH
Mr. Krabs uses the award to drive SpongeBob, but he dupes SpongeBob into believing he might break his ongoing winning streak and lose this month to Squidward. Squidward could care less but goes along with the ruse for fun. But when a fearful SpongeBob works so hard he humiliates Squidward at work, the battle for the award begins.

13A - I WAS A TEENAGE GARY
Squidward reluctantly agrees to take care of SpongeBob's pet snail, Gary, for a few days while SpongeBob is out of town. When Squidward's negligence causes Gary to become ill, SpongeBob accidentally takes a dose of the snail medicine, which causes SpongeBob to turn into a snail. Squidward is now faced with taking care of both Gary, and the impossible SpongeSnail.

13B - SCAREDY PANTS
It's Halloween again, and like every year before, SpongeBob is the easiest scare in Bikini Bottom. This year SpongeBob is determined to turn the tables and scare everyone at Mr. Krabs' Halloween party. With Patrick's help, SpongeBob devises what is sure to be the scariest costume ever. Although SpongeBob's costume scares no one, his presence does summon Bikini Bottom's most feared ghostly legend -
The Flying Dutchman, who is appalled by the way SpongeBob is portraying him.

14A - SB-129
Fleeing from SpongeBob and Patrick's incessant noise, Squidward winds up frozen in the Krusty Krab freezer. When he finally does thaw out, he finds himself far into the future, unable to get home and actually missing SpongeBob and Patrick. Eventually, Squidward uses a time machine to get back to The Krusty Krab.

14B - KARATE CHOPPERS
SpongeBob and Sandy's incessant Karate sparring is starting to wreak havoc in the Krusty Krab. Mr. Krabs orders SpongeBob, under penalty of being fired, to cease all Karate activities. SpongeBob's toughest opponent becomes the irresistible lure of Karate sparring.

15A - SLEEPYTIME
One night, SpongeBob suddenly posses the amazing ability to visit the dreams of his friends and neighbors. As he visits from one dream to the next, SpongeBob gets involved in their personal fantasies, for better or worse. The residents of Bikini Bottom, however, aren't too happy about this new addition to their nightly slumber.

15B - SUDS
SpongeBob comes down with a case of the dreaded 'Suds', an illness which turns him into a sniffly, sneezing, bubble-maker. A mandatory visit to the doctor's office is sidetracked, however, when Patrick convinces him that such a move hold unspeakable horrors (like old magazines!). It's up to Sandy to knock some sense into the boys.

16A - VALENTINE'S DAY
It's Valentine's Day and SpongeBob has made an extra special Valentine for his best friend in the world, Patrick Starfish. Disaster strikes when the present doesn't show up as planned and Patrick feels snubbed, to say the least!

16B - THE PAPER
When Squidward discards what to him is a worthless gum wrapper, SpongeBob teaches him that one man's useless piece of paper can be another man's magical toy. Squidward is filled with envy and anger toward SpongeBob who manages to have the time of his life with the scrap of paper.

17A - ARGH!
SpongeBob and Patrick convince Mr. Krabs to join in a friendly board game of "Treasure Hunt". Even a pretend search for gold proves too alluring for Mr. Krabs, who convinces the two lads to join him on a real treasure hunt. The boys threaten mutiny when they realizes Krabs' map is a fake, that is until they discover real treasure and its real owner!

17B - ROCK BOTTOM
SpongeBob accidentally gets on the wrong bus, he finds himself lost in an unfamiliar and mysterious part of the sea called Rock Bottom. Nervous and unable to communicate with these strange creatures and their strange language, SpongeBob must learn to adapt to this new environment so he can figure out how to get back home.

18A - TEXAS

Sandy comes down with a case of the blues and SpongeBob is determined to find out why and what he can do about it. The cure proves a little more challenging than expected when it turns out Sandy is homesick for 'good 'ol Texas' and plans to go back home. SpongeBob and friends decide to bring a little bit of Texas right to Bikini Bottom.

18B - WALKING SMALL
The evil Plankton is up to no good once again when he tries to manipulate SpongeBob into becoming aggressive and mean in order to get more out of life. SpongeBob discovers that just because people obey you they don't necessarily respect you. Besides, it's just more fun to be nice to people and have them like you.

19A - FOOLS IN APRIL
It's April Fools Day, one of SpongeBob's favorite days of the year because he gets to play harmless pranks all day long (even if most people don't get them). Squidward decides to teach SpongeBob what a REAL April Fools joke is and gets him, but also finds out mean is not necessarily funny. Only time will reveal who has the last laugh.

19B - NEPTUNE'S SPATULA
On a visit to the Fry Cook Hall of Fame, SpongeBob inadvertently pulls a mythical spatula from a vat of ancient grease, thus giving him claim to the title of 'Worlds Greatest Fry Cook'. When the act summons the great King of the Sea, Neptune, however, SpongeBob must face the disbelieving god in the Ultimate Cook-Off Challenge.

20A - HOOKY
When the mysterious "hooks" (fishing, that is) suddenly appear in Bikini Bottom, Mr. Krabs warns SpongeBob to stay away from them. Despite Mr. Krabs' scary tales of sea creatures winding up in gift shops or packed cans, Patrick convinces SpongeBob that there's no risk and the boys tempt fate by riding the hooks and jumping off for fun.

20B - MERMAIDMAN AND BARNACLEBOY II
SpongeBob wins the big prize from his favorite TV show, "The Adventures of Mermaidman and Barnacleboy" - The Conch Signal! Now he can summon the semi-retired super heroes whenever there's an emergency. Rather than keep getting signals for "emergencies" like opening jars, the duo take SpongeBob along for their patrol to see what real crime fighting is all about.

21A - YOUR SHOE'S UNTIED
Pat gets a new pair of shoes, but doesn't know how to tie his laces. When SpongeBob offers to demonstrate lace tying to Pat, he forgets how to do. SpongeBob suffers various calamities, trying to make it through his day with his laces untied and him tripping over everything. In the end, it's Gary who reminds SpongeBob how to tie his laces by teaching him a groovy song to help him remember.

21B - SQUID'S DAY OFF
Mr. Krabs takes the day off from the Krusty Krab and puts Squid in charge for the day. Squid seizes the opportunity to take the day off as well and he leaves SpongeBob alone to man the store. However, at home, Squid continues to imagine the calamities that might happen if SpongeBob were left to his own devices and it drives him crazy. He repeatedly rushes back to the Krusty Krab to check up on things only to find an innocent SpongeBob ready for work. In the end, Squid decides it's just easier to stay there and work.

22A - SOMETHING SMELLS
SpongeBob eats some sea onion ice cream and his breath stinks. When people avoid him, Pat offers "maybe it's because you're ugly." Together, they devise various ways to hide SpongeBob's hideous face. When Pat eats some sea onion bon bons and people avoid him, too, he becomes convinced that he has caught "the ugly" from SpongeBob. Together, they try to rid themselves of this horrible curse.

22B - WORKING PEARL
When Mr. Krabs gives his daughter Pearl a job at the Krusty Krab, she starts to make some big changes in the menu and atmosphere. SpongeBob is threatened and doesn't like the new "management" but after a bit he gets used to it. It urns out that Mr. Krabs who hates all the changes, but he doesn't have the heart to fire his own daughter. Mr. Krabs commands SpongeBob to fire Pearl for him, but SpongeBob really doesn't want to. Mr. Krabs gives him an ultimatum, fire Pearl or he's fired from the greatest job he's ever had.

23A - BIG PINK LOSER
Pat feels like he hasn't accomplished anything with his life and he decides to take SpongeBob on as his role model. At first, SpongeBob is flattered, but soon Pat takes the idea too far and begins to take over SpongeBob's life and identity. SpongeBob tries to snap Pat out of his obsession and snap him back into being himself.

23B - BUBBLE BUDDY
Pat's out of town and SpongeBob is feeling lonely one day so he blows a bubble to keep him company. As he walks around town talking to his new friend, everyone thinks he's taking this imaginary friend thing too far and needs help. They stage an "intervention" to try to snap him back to reality. When SpongeBob refuses to say his buddy isn't real, his friends decide to pop him with a pin and they discover how wrong they were.

24A - DYING FOR PIE
When Squidward accidentally lets SpongeBob eat an exploding pie, he feels guilty and resolves to makes SpongeBob's few remaining hours left in the world enjoyable. SpongeBob doesn't know why Squid's being so nice, but he's thrilled to spend the day with him and he makes him do all sorts of fun activities. Squid is miserable playing with him all day until he realizes SpongeBob didn't eat the exploding pie, he did! KABOOM!

24B - IMITATION KRABS
Plankton schemes to steal the Krabby patty by disguising himself as Mr. Krabs and infiltrating the Krusty Krab. SpongeBob is torn in two as both "Mr. Krabs" give him conflicting orders all day long and he is going crazy trying to please them both. Eventually, SpongeBob exposes Plankton as a fraud and the two of them have a tartar sauce showdown.

25A - WORMY
When Sandy goes out of town for a few days, she puts SpongeBob and Patrick in charge of her pet caterpillar. When the caterpillar turns into a beautiful butterfly overnight, SpongeBob and Pat are terrified of this new creature. It ate wormy and now it's after them! They cause a panic around Bikini Bottom, warning everyone to be on the look out for the horrible monster butterfly.

25B - PATTY HYPE
Mr. Krabs keeps trying new sales gimmicks for the Krusty Krab, but none of them work. SpongeBob comes up with an idea for colored krabby patties, but Mr. Krabs just scoffs at him, reminding him to leave the creative thinking to him. SpongeBob gets his feelings hurt and decides to test his colored patty ideas for himself. He and Pat set up a tiny patty stand in front of the Pineapple and suddenly colored patties are the rage of Bikini Bottom and stealing all of the Krusty Krab's business. Mr. Krabs is desperate to steal the gimmick from SpongeBob and by the time he does, the fad is over and Mr. Krabs gets what he deserves.

26A - GRANDMA'S KISSES
When SpongeBob's grammaw gives him a kiss in public, the guys at work tease him about being a little baby. Embarrassed and humiliated, SpongeBob and Pat resolve to become more adult and to tell Grammaw that she can't kiss him anymore. But when they get there, Pat caves completely and laps up all of Grammaw's affection. SpongeBob is jealous and tries desperately to get Grammaw to kiss him again, but she refuses, claiming SpongeBob is too adult now for kisses. SpongeBob ends up regressing completely and finally cops to the fact that he loves her kisses and will never be embarrassed about them again.

26B - SQUIDVILLE
Squid is so sick and tired of living between SpongeBob and Pat that he decides to leave Bikini Bottom and go someplace where everyone is just like him. Squid arrives and he loves it at first, but he soon discovers how boring everyone is and how uninteresting his life is without the constant mayhem that SpongeBob and Pat provide. Crazed by the monotony, Squidward starts to act out, becoming the "SpongeBob" of this new community.

27A - PRE-HIBERNATION WEEK
Sandy is going into hibernation in one week and she wants to pack a million activities for her and SpongeBob to do together in that short time. SpongeBob is game and he starts off strong, but he can't keep up with the adrenaline junkie Sandy. He doesn't want to hurt her feelings by telling her "No" so instead he just hides. When Sandy can't find him, she recruits the rest of Bikini Bottom to go on a massive "Sponge-hunt" to find him. In the end, they all get as fed up with Sandy as SpongeBob did and they hide from her, too.

27B - LIFE OF CRIME
Mr. Krabs tells SpongeBob and Pat that it's okay to borrow things if you plan to return them one day. So SpongeBob and Pat "borrow" a balloon from the Bargain Mart and they accidentally pop it. They realize that they can't return it, so they are now criminals! Fearing a life in jail for their crime, SpongeBob and Pat go on the lam.

28A/B - THE SPONGEBOB SQUAREPANTS CHRISTMAS SPECIAL
Nobody in Bikini Bottom has ever heard of Christmas or Santa Clause until Sandy lets them in on this surface tradition. SpongeBob wants to bring Christmas to Bikini Bottom this year and his enthusiasm is infectious. Everyone gets into the spirit, waiting for Santa to arrive on the big day. Everyone except Squidward, who has scoffed at SpongeBob the whole while. When Santa is a no show on Christmas morning, everyone blames SpongeBob for getting their hopes up. But in a surprise ending, Squidward uncharacteristically saves the day and Christmas ends up coming after all.

29A - SURVIVAL OF THE IDIOTS
While Sandy is hibernating for the winter, SpongeBob and Pat are fascinated by the snow they see inside the Treedome and want to play in it. When they try to sneak inside, Sandy warns them in a pre-taped video not to disturb a mammal when she's hibernating. SpongeBob and Pat, of course, ignore the warning, play in the snow, wake up Sandy and then have to contend with the sleepwalking and sleeptalking savage beast she's become. When they finally get her back to sleep, they realize the lock to the door is frozen shut and they'll have to spend the winter there. Freezing, they pluck off all of Sandy's hair in order to keep warm and when she wakes up, it's payback time.

29B - DUMPED
One day, Gary starts following Pat around and SpongeBob can't figure out why. Slowly he grows more and more jealous and becomes determined to win Gary back. Pat thinks SpongeBob should just accept that Gary's with him now and move on with his life. SpongeBob tries to replace Gary with new pets, but none of them are the same. SpongeBob becomes more and more pathetic as he tries to win back Gary's affection and in a surprise ending, we understand that Gary is as loyal as a pet can be.

30A - NO FREE RIDES
SpongeBob attempts and fails his driving test again, but a ragged and fed up Ms. Puff wants him out of her classroom so she makes up some bogus extra credit for him so he can pass the test. This all backfires on Ms. Puff and the only way she can stop SpongeBob from menacing Bikini Bottom's roadways is to steal SpongeBob's boat so he can't drive it.

30B - I'M YOUR BIGGEST FANATIC
When SpongeBob and Pat go to a jellyfishing convention, SpongeBob tries to join an exclusive, elitist jellyfishing club. Secretly, the club president thinks SpongeBob is not worthy , but for his own amusement he makes SpongeBob pass a series of grueling tests in order to join the club. The tests end up backfiring on him and SpongeBob learns that talking about jellyfishing isn't nearly as cool as just doing it.

31A - MERMAIDMAN AND BARNACLEBOY III
When Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy go away for the weekend, they ask SpongeBob and Pat to house sit for them. Inside the house, SpongeBob and Pat discover the evil super villain, Man-Ray frozen in a tank. SpongeBob can't help but unfreeze him and he cons them into setting him free by convincing them they have re-habilitated him. Once SpongeBob and Pat set him free, they find out that Man-Ray was only pretending and they take on the roles of Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy themselves in order to re-capture the villain and save Bikini Bottom.. In an idiotic show down, we learn that Man-Ray only thinks he hasn't turned good, but actually SpongeBob and Pat did change him and he gives up his evil ways.

31B - SQUIRREL JOKES
When SpongeBob starts telling derogatory jokes about squirrels, SpongeBob becomes an overnight stand up comedy sensation. At first, Sandy is a good sport about it, but soon people start treating her as if she really was stupid and smelly. Her feelings get hurt and she asks SpongeBob if he could tell some other kinds of jokes. SpongeBob agrees but when he tries to, he flops on his face so he quickly resorts to his standard squirrel jokes. Sandy invites SpongeBob to the Treedome for a celebration dinner. When he arrives, Sandy acts as stupid as SpongeBob has been claiming squirrels are, and he gets what's coming to him.

32A - PRESSURE
Sandy and SpongeBob get into a fierce competition doing extreme underwater sports. The longer they compete, the more people they attract and soon SpongeBob has a small following who cheer him on as their underwater mascot and poo poo Sandy because she is a "land lubber." The score is even until Sandy loses because her underwater suit can't handle the pressure from the great depths of the sea. SpongeBob and his cronies brag and Sandy challenges them to go to the surface and see how they do. Scared out of their minds, they go to the surface and get chased by a seagull. In the end, Sandy saves them just barely in time.

32B - THE SMOKING PEANUT
SpongeBob and Pat visit the zoo and SpongeBob innocently tosses a peanut at a oyster in order to rouse it. The oyster goes crazy and suddenly the authorities demand to know what could have caused this. SpongeBob panics and denies that he knows anything about it. The dismayed oyster continues to cry, disturbing all of Bikini Bottom and everyone, including Pat, becomes obsessed with making sure whoever tossed that peanut is punished. SpongeBob digs himself a deeper and deeper hole by refusing to come clean. Finally, the police tell him they have found their man and they haul Patrick off claiming he was the only one there at the scene of the crime. SpongeBob can't let Pat take the rap for something he did even though Pat is now completely convinced that he, indeed, did it. In the end, SpongeBob comes clean.

33A - SHANGHAIED
An anchor gets lodged into Squidward's window, so SpongeBob, Pat and Squidward all climb the rope to see who is responsible. It's The Flying Dutchman's ship, and he enslaves them to work as crew members on deck for the rest of their lives! Squidward, however, is quickly thrown overboard because he's so annoying. SpongeBob and Pat love being slaves on board his ghostly ship and it drives the Dutchman crazy. An angry Dutchman resigns to eat them the next day, so SpongeBob and Pat steal his special dining socks in retaliation. He agrees to grant them 3 wishes in exchange for the socks. They quickly blow the first two wishes. Their destiny will be determined by our audience voting over the phone lines and the internet.

33B - GARY TAKES A BATH
It's time to give Gary a bath, but he doesn't want to take one. SpongeBob tries to lure Gary into the tub but he refuses to go. In the end, Gary outsmarts SpongeBob by luring him outside. SpongeBob falls in the mud and ends up even dirtier than Gary ever was. Gary meows and goes back inside.

34B - WELCOME TO THE CHUM BUCKET
Mr. Krabs loses SpongeBob's fry cook contract in a bet with Plankton and SpongeBob is forced to go work at the Chum Bucket. While there, SpongeBob is so homesick that he can't even fry up a single patty. At a loss, Plankton tries to comfort SpongeBob by showering him with gifts and attention. So much so, that SpongeBob soon acts like a spoiled teenager. Plankton tries to throw him out but SpongeBob sys he doesn't feel like it. Plankton ends up having to pay Mr. Krabs to take SpongeBob off his hands again.

34B - FRANKENDOODLE
When SpongeBob and Pat discover a pencil from the surface they begin to draw with it. Everything the draw, comes to life! Soon, they begin to do small, lame pranks on the neighbors, the last of which is a crude, rough sketch of SpongeBob they call "SpongeDoodle". SpongeDoodle quickly escapes and starts pranking all of SpongeBob's friends and SpongeBob is getting blamed for it. Then, he starts to prank SpongeBob and Pat, too. SpongeBob erases his drawing, but it comes back life, re-drawing itself and they have an erase war. May the better sponge win!

35A - SECRET BOX
Pat has a box and he won't show SpongeBob what's inside of it because it's a secret. SpongeBob can't believe Pat would keep something from him and he pretends not to care what's inside the box, but secretly it's driving him crazy. In the end, SpongeBob's curiosity gets the better of him and he breaks into the Rock at night to steal the box. When SpongeBob discovers nothing inside he is sorely disappointed and leaves. Afterwards, Pat is grateful that SpongeBob never found his secret compartment inside his secret box.

35B - BAND GEEKS
When Squid's rival from High School starts bragging to him about being a successful bandleader, Squid lies and claims he has a successful band as well. His rival offers to let Squid and his band pinch hit for him at the famous Bubble Bowl. Squid jumps at the chance and then realizes he doesn't have a band and needs to get one fast. He recruits SpongeBob, Pat, Sandy etc. to play in his band, but they act like a bunch of idiots in rehearsal and Squid can't control them. Eventually, he realizes he's going to be made a fool of at the Bubble Bowl. But SpongeBob etc.. get it together at the last minute and play great. Squid ends up looking fantastic in front of his old rival.

36A - GRAVEYARD SHIFT
In order to increase profits, Krabs decides that the Krusty Krab will now be open 24 hours a day. He orders SpongeBob and Squidward to work all night – what's known as the Graveyard Shift. At first SB is scared so Squid taunts him by telling a scary tale about the "Hash Slinging Slasher." Soon, their paranoia gets the best of them and they become convinced someone is stalking them, waiting to kill them – it turns out the guy just wanted an application.

36B - KRUSTY LOVE
Ms. Puff pays a visit to the Krusty Krab and Mr. Krabs is instantly smitten with her. He recruits SpongeBob to help him woo Ms. Puff. SpongeBob tries to play match maker, but he screws it all up and Krabs threatens his job at every turn. In the end, it turns out she didn't need much wooing, she was into Krabs the whole time!

37A - PROCRASTINATION
Spongebob has an assignment for boating school. He must write an 800 word essay before the next morning. Spongebob starts to write it, but he gets distracted easily and can't keep his mind on his work. The hours fly by and SpongeBob is exhausted. Delirious, he imagines his pants on the clothes line are talking to him. They mock him for procrastinating and not writing his essay sooner. SpongeBob hallucinates more and we reveal that he was actually dreaming. He has five minutes to write the essay which he does, describing all the things he saw in his crazy dream.

37B - I'M WITH STUPID
When Patrick's parents come over for Starfish Day, Patrick gets upset that they still think he isn't very smart. Spongebob offers to act stupid next to Pat in front of Patricks' parents in order to make Pat look smarter, but their plan backfires when Patrick forgets that Spongebob is just acting and really does believe Spongebob is stupid. Spongebob and Patrick compete with each other to prove once and for all who's smarter, only to discover that Patrick's parents aren't his real parents after all, but identical starfish who have come to the wrong address.

38A - SAILOR MOUTH
SpongeBob reads a “bad” word off the dumpster behind the Krusty Krabs and he doesn’t know what it means. He asks Pat who explains to him that it’s a fancy word and both of them start using it in every sentence they can. But when Mr. Krabs hears them he goes berserk and warns them never to use it again. Later on, SpongeBob accidentally uses the “bad” word again and Pat runs to tell on him to Mr. Krabs. SpongeBob chases him and in the excitement, Mr. Krabs accidentally stubs his toe and says the “bad” word as well. SpongeBob and Pat can’t believe it and they run to Mr. Krabs mother to tell on him and she makes them all paint her house as punishment.

38B - ARTIST UNKNOWN
Squid is teaching an art class at the adult learning center in Bikini Bottom and SpongeBob turns up as his only student. SpongeBob is a natural and Squid crushes his spirit with all his criticism. SpongeBob leaves the class convinced he has no talent. When and art collector arrives moments later and commissions Squid to make a statue for the park, Squid realizes he needs SpongeBob’s help and begs him to come back and try again. But SpongeBob can longer perform like he did and his art now comes out as bad as Squid’s. Frustrated with SpongeBob, Squid destroys all of the supplies and the land in a heap behind him. When the art collector arrives he asks if the heap is his statue and Squid denies he has anything to do with it. We reveal the heap and it is an amazing statue that gets erected in the park with the plaque underneath reading “artist unknown”. Squid is never recognized as an artist at all.

39A - JELLYFISH HUNTER
When money hungry Mr. Krabs discovers that customers love Spongebob’s special jellyfish jelly Krabby Patty, he convinces Spongebob to bring him as many of the jellyfish as he can. Spongebob easily brings in herds of the gentle creatures and empties the entire jellyfish field, with the exception of his favorite one, Ol’ Buzzy. However, Ol’ Buzzy isn’t happy with Spongebob’s lack of respect for the jellyfish fields, and hunts after Spongebob to reveal to him the horrible conditions under which Mr. Krabs is keeping all the jellyfish. When Spongebob realizes what he has done, he joins forces with Ol’ Buzzy to free all of the jellyfish from greedy Mr. Krabs.

39B - THE FRYCOOK GAMES
The fast food Olympics are taking place and Krabs has entered SpongeBob to compete in all the events. As Pat watches SpongeBob train, he decides he wants to play, too. SpongeBob explains to him that you have to actually work at a fast food place to enter. Pat quickly gets a job with the Chum Bucket and Plankton enters Pat in the Olympics as his champion. SpongeBob and Pat’s friendship is torn apart as Mr. Krabs and Plankton whip them into killing machines. They compete and it’s all tied until the last event when SpongeBob and Pat both realize that they can’t let any old competition get in the way of their friendship. Mr. Krabs and Plankton end up wrestling for the championship title.

40A - SQUID ON STRIKE
Believing Mr. Krab is taking advantage, Squidward convinces naïve Spongebob to join with him and threaten Mr. Krabs with a strike. When Mr. Krabs fires them both, a frustrated Squidward tries to teach Spongebob the art of picketing, but business only gets better for Mr. Krabs, and Squid is forced to make a stump speech about how they will “destroy the establishment.” When Squid has nightmares about being unemployed with Spongebob forever, he caves into Krabs and they both reach an agreement, but only after Spongebob has taken Squidward literally by entirely destroying the Krusty Krab.

40B - SANDY, SPONGEBOB, AND THE WORM
A large worm is terrorizing Bikini Bottom and SpongeBob is terrified of it. Sandy thinks SpongeBob is chicken and drags him out into the wilderness to take the worm on. When they finally see the worm, it turns out SpongeBob was right – it's ferocious. It chases Sandy and SpongeBob hi and lo. Sandy and SpongeBob run for their lives while fighting over whose fault it is. In the end, they get away and become friends again.

41A - THE ALGAE'S ALWAYS GREENER
Palnkton has a new invention that allows him to switch lives with Mr. Krabs. He is so excited because once he has Mr. Krabs life, he will also have the Krabby Patty secret formula. He uses it and at the Krusty Krab is immediately assaulted with all of the headaches of running a business, managing SB and Squid – not to mention being a father to a demanding teenage daughter. To make matters worse, Mr. Krabs has now turned into him and is continuously trying to steal his secret formula. Plankton is driven crazy and before he can steal the formula, he switches back. It's more fun to try and steal the formula than lead Mr. Krabs crazy life.

41B- SPONGE GUARD ON DUTY
When Larry the Lobster is short one man for lifeguard duty, SpongeBob volunteers. Larry describes all the perks of the jobs: tanning, the chair, the whistle, the attention. What SpongeBob doesn't get is that you have to be able to swim. SpongeBob takes the job and spends all his energy trying to keep people out of the water because SpongeBob can't swim. The inevitable happens when Pat goes for a dip and starts to drown. SpongeBob is forced to overcome his fear and save him. Out in the ocean, Pat nearly drowns them both when he panics. Larry is forced to come save them both. We reveal that they are only in two feet of water.

42A - CLUB SPONGEBOB
SpongeBob and Patrick build a small clubhouse in a tree and get inside. When Squid happens by they tell him he can't join the club because he wouldn't fit in. Pissed, Squid insists on joining the club. He climbs the tree and gets inside. The three of them are squeezed inside a tiny space – SpongeBob and Pat literally meant that Squid wouldn't fit in. SpongeBob and Pat then invite Squid to join the club, but now he refuses. While trying to escape, they accidentally launch themselves out into the woods. They are lost. SpongeBob and Pat consult their magic ball for directions while Squid tries to make it home on his own. Squid marches in circles while SpongeBob and Pat wait leisurely for the magic ball's instructions. In the end, Squid is driven crazy and joins their club just to get out of the woods alive.

42B - MY PRETTY SEAHORSE
SpongeBob finds a stray sea horse and adopts it. When it comes time to go to work, SpongeBob can't bear to leave him at home so he takes him to work and hides him in the kitchen. When Mr. Krabs gets wind of it he orders SpongeBob to take the horse home, but SpongeBob hides him instead. The seahorse keeps escaping from his hiding place and eating all the Krabby Patties. Eventually SpongeBob is forced to come clean.

43A - THE BULLY
There is a new bully in boating school named Flats who threatens to beat SpongeBob up after school. SpongeBob is terrified and tries to get help, but everyone is under Flats terror hold already. When the moment of truth comes, Flats throws a punch and falls on his face. SpongeBob realizes there was nothing ever to be scared of in the beginning.

43B - JUST ONE BITE
When SpongeBob learns that Squid has never actually tried a Krabby Patty, he becomes obsessed with the idea that Squid must try it. He badgers Squid until he gives in. When Squid takes a bite, he pretends to hate the patty, but secretly he loves it. Alone, he craves another bite, but doesn't want SpongeBob to know. In the end, he sneaks into the Krusty Krab late at night, stuffs his face with patties only to be caught in the act by SpongeBob.

44A - THE NASTY PATTY
When the heath inspector comes to the Krusty Krab, Krabs tries to get the joint up to code. A passing stranger falls asleep and Krabs and SpongeBob become convinced that he is the health inspector and they have killed him with a spoiled Krabby Patty. They try to hide the body when the cops show up. In the end, the real inspector shows up and they're off the hook.

44B - THE IDIOT BOX
When a large screen TV is delivered to SpongeBob and Pat, they throw the TV out and keep the box. Squid thinks they are idiots and asks to keep the TV. They say sure. As Squid is watching his new TV though, he keeps hearing noises from inside the box. He keeps going outside to investigate, but each time he finds SpongeBob and Pat just sitting in the box. SpongeBob and Pat explain to him that they are using their imagination, but Squid doesn't buy it. Eventually he climbs into the box himself only to be carted off to the city dump.

45A - MERMAID MAN AND BARNACLE BOY IV
Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy are eating at the Krusty Krab when Mermaid Man accidentally drops his utility belt. SpongeBob finds the belt and can't resist it. He takes it home and tries it on. He plays being Mermaid Man for a while and starts touching the buttons. When Pat comes over he accidentally shrinks him with his laser-shrinking button. When Squid hears the noise and comes to complain, SpongeBob accidentally shrinks him too. Panicked, he ends up shrinking all of Bikini Bottom. Embarrassed, he has no choice but to go to Mermaid Man, confess that he played with the belt and shrank everyone. At least he'll know which button makes everyone big again. But Mermaid Man can't remember so SpongeBob ends up shrinking the whole town so everything seems back to normal.

45B - DOING TIME
During a boating lesson with Mrs. Puff, SpongeBob loses control of his boat and crashes it into a juice truck and a senior citizens home. Mrs. Puff confesses that she is responsible for SpongeBob, so the police throw her in jail. SpongeBob is determined to free his teacher who he feels was wrongfully imprisoned. But Mrs. Puff is having a wonderful time. At last she can relax without having to worry about accompanying SpongeBob on any more harrowing boating lessons ever again – that is until SpongeBob and Patrick sneak into the jail and attempt to break her out.

46A - THE SNOWBALL EFFECT
When it snows in Bikini Bottom, SponegBob and Pat go out in the snow and play in their snow forts etc… They make a racket and Squid complains. Squid makes fun of them for playing in the snow. To show Squid how much fun the snow can be, SpongeBob and Pat throw a snowball at him. One thing leads to another and soon Squid is involved in an all out snow war with SpongeBob and Pat. Squid takes it too far and goes crazy playing in the snow.

46B - ONE KRAB'S TRASH
When Mr. Krabs has a garage sale and tries to peddle off everyone's trash as priceless heirlooms, he ends up selling to Spongebob a novelty soda drink hat, which to Krabs's surprise turns out to be the most sought after piece of merchandise in Bikini Bottom. Convinced Spongebob knew all along how much the hat was worth, a desperate Krabs attempts to scam the hat back from Spongebob. When Krabs finally succeeds in getting the hat back, an entire warehouse full of the hats is discovered, making it worthless once again.

47A - AS SEEN ON TV
Krabs makes a low budget commercial and SpongeBob is in it for one second. After the commercial airs once at three in the morning, a blind man recognizes SpongeBob. SpongeBob's head blows up and he tells Krabs that he is going to have to quit the Krusty Krab now that he's a big famous star. Spongebob is convinced that his public needs him. When his public demands that they see him frying Krabby Patties, SpongeBob doesn't think he's anyone to deny them. He ends up cooking patties just like he always has.

47B - CAN YOU SPARE A DIME
Squid is fed up with Krab's insults and he quits, bragging about how easy it will be to find another job. But of course, it's not and Squid falls upon hard times. He goes though all his savings and is dirt poor. Having no where else to turn, he asks SpongeBob if he can crash at the Pineapple for awhile, just until he gets back on his feet. SpongeBob's heart goes out to him, but soon Squid takes advantage of SpongeBob's hospitality and becomes the house guest who has completely overstayed his welcome. SpongeBob has to beg Krabs to hire Squid back at the Krusty Krab.

48A - NO WEENIES ALLOWED (fka SpongeBob Takes it up a Notch)
SpongeBob and Sandy are enjoying a day at the beach when they come across the Salty Spitoon, a rough and tumble hangout for real rugged folk. Sandy makes it through the bouncer, but SpongeBob is left outside. He then tries repeatedly to prove to the bouncer that he's tough enough to hang out with that crowd. Eventually he makes it inside, only to get hurt, and realizes its OK to just be himself.

48B - SQUILLIAM RETURNS
Squidward's arch nemesis, Squilliam, has returned to harass Squidward on his failed life since high school. Squidward lies and tells him that he actually owns a five star restaurant. Squilliam invites himself and a group of people to eat dinner there that night. After Squidward convinced Mr. Krabs to let him run the Krusty Krab for the evening, (Squilliam is, after all, filthy rich, which is music to Mr. K's wallet) He attempts to turn the Krusty Krab into a fine dining establishment. All attempts fail until he gives SpongeBob a manual on fine dining and tells him to empty his mind of everything except fine dining and breathing. SpongeBob works miracles, pulling the wool over everyone's eyes and making even Squidward proud. But when Sqiulliam asks SpongeBob his name, SpongeBob's empty brain can't handle the question and he goes berserk. Squidward fesses up to Squilliam he is just a cashier and is left humiliated.

49A - KRAB BORG!
SpongeBob stays up late one night watching a sci-fi film where robots take over the world. He comes to work paranoid and Squid scoffs at him. Through a series of wild coincidences, SpongeBob gets it in his head that Mr. Krabs is a robot and convinces Squid the same thing, too. In a paranoid fit, SpongeBob and Squid tie up Mr. Krabs and interrogate him as to where he has put the real Mr. Krabs. Mr. Krabs tries to convince him that it is him, but Squid and SpongeBob are too deeply involved in the fantasy and abuse Mr. Krabs in order to get the information. In the end, Squid asks SpongeBob how the movie ended. SpongeBob confesses that in the end of the movie, the robot wasn't a robot after all but a real person. Krabs yells I told you so. SpongeBob splits and Squid is left taking the blame for it all.

49B - ROCK A BYE BI-VALVE (FKA SPONGEY DEAREST)
SpongeBob and Patrick find an abandoned baby clam and decided to rear the child as their own. SpongeBob takes on the role of mother, while Patrick becomes the Father who goes to work (under his rock to watch TV with a briefcase full of doughnuts) all day. When the stress of motherhood begins to get to SpongeBob, and he asks Patrick for help, Patrick restates that he has to go to work. He spends less and less time at home and Patrick and SpongeBob fight more and more. When SpongeBob finds out where Patrick has really been spending all of his time, he is livid, but their baby clam has grown up and is ready to fly away on its own. Patrick and SpongeBob put aside their differences to watch their child fly away.

50A - WET PAINTERS (FKA DEREK'S PAINT STORY)
SpongeBob and Patrick are wreaking havoc on the Krusty Krab, so Mr. Krabs decides to give them a little busy work. He tells them to paint his living room, and gives them permanent paint. Very permanent. So permanent that he threatens to hang their butts over his mantle if they get it on anything. They manage to paint the entire room, covered in knick-knacks, without a drop anywhere…until they see a tiny, microscopic speck on Mr. Krabs' framed and prized first dollar! Their efforts to remove the paint only wreck precious dollar all the more. When Mr. Krabs comes home and finds it, he laughs; telling them the paint comes off with saliva. He licks the dollar and it's good as new. He laughs so hard at their fear of his wrath that he spits all over the room, and the paint drips off of all the walls.

50B - KRUSTY KRAB TRAINING VIDEO (FKA ALL ABOARD)
The excitement! You are now a member of the official Krusty Krab crew! In this informative episode, you will learn all of the attributes necessary to become an excellent employee in the fast-paced world of fast food restaurants. Everything from personal hygiene to Krabby Patty Construction is covered in this mandatory Krusty crew video.

51A/B - SPONGEBOB'S HOUSE PARTY
SpongeBob, while grocery shopping, discovers a "how to throw a party" kit. He decides to throw a big party and invites everyone he's ever known. Unfortunately for his guests, SpongeBob plans everything right down to the minute, sapping all the fun from his party. When he gets accidentally locked outside, the real party begins, but SpongeBob freaks out thinking that his planning isn't being followed. He spends the rest of the episode trying to get back inside his house and failing. When his guests leave the next morning, they tell him what a great party it was.

52A - CHOCOLATE WITH NUTS
SpongeBob and Pat want to make some extra cash so they decide to sell chocolate bars door to door. They have no luck at first. In fact, they end up buying more stuff than selling stuff. That is, until they start lying to sell the chocolate. They claim it saves lives etc.. Their lies become more and more outrageous, but they have almost sold every last bar of candy. Eventually, they come upon a door and the guy inside is a better liar than they are and he ends up selling them back all the chocolate bars they sold. Bummed out they are about to quit when a crazy man who has been chasing them on and off the whole episode, corners them and buys all their chocolate bars. SpongeBob and Pat are thrilled. Now they have a ton of money. They go to the Barg-N-Mart and buy a box of chocolate bars to celebrate.

52B - SUPERFRIENDS (FKA MERMAIDMAN & BARNACLE BOY V)
Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy are visiting the Krusty Krab, and they get into an argument about whether or not Barnacle boy should be treated as the kid sidekick anymore. He wants to be called Barnacle Man, and he wants a full sized Krabby Patty, not a kids meal. Everyone laughs at his protests, and as a result, he decides to go evil. He teams up with arch villains Man Ray and Dirty Bubble, and they cause havoc all over Bikini Bottom. Without his sidekick, Mermaid man is unable to stop them - until Patrick Sandy, Squidward, and SpongeBob team up with him to be his SuperFriends. They suit up and run off to fight the villains, and in the end, Barnacle Boy realizes that he was happy after all as the sidekick.

53A - NEW STUDENT STARFISH
It's another day of boating school for SpongeBob, and this time, Patrick wants to come along too. Patrick becomes the new student in SpongeBob's class, and from his introduction, begins getting SpongeBob in trouble. Every time Patrick does something wrong, it appears that SpongeBob has done it. In retaliation, Mrs. Puff takes gold stars off of SpongeBob's "Good Noodle" chart. Spongebob begins to seriously resent Patrick, to the point where the two of them fight and end up in detention. In the process, the light bulb keeping the class science project egg, Roger, alive, burns out. Patrick and SpongeBob have to put aside their differences and work together to save Roger.

53B - CLAMS (FKA SPONGEJAWS)
It's another day at the Krusty Krab when a random customer provides Mr. Krabs of his one millionth dollar! To celebrate, he takes SpongeBob and Squidward on a clam fishing trip. An over eager SpongeBob accidentally hooks the dollar with his fishing line and throws it out into the water - where a giant clam eats it! Mr. Krabs becomes obsessed and desperately tries to regain his lost dollar. His mental capacity deteriorates until finally the clam reappears and he retrieves his dollar with a brave and death-defying stunt.

54A/B - SPONGEBOB BC
It is prehistoric Bikini Bottom, and we spend a day in the life of SpongeGar, Patar, and Squog. (Sponge, Pat, and Squid's prehistoric alter-egos.) Thanks to the magic of an underwater thunderstorm, our three Neanderthal friends discover fire. After gorging themselves on barbecued-everything-they-could-find, the battle for who should control the fire ensues. Much scrambling and trickery results in the fire being extinguished, and the three cave neighbors go on about their days.

55A - THE GREAT SNAIL RACE
Squidward gets a pure-bread snail, Snelle, and decides to race her in the snail races. SpongeBob becomes competitive and enters Gary, coaching him to the point of exhaustion. At the races, Gary fizzles out, and Snelle comes to his aid, proving that it's not winning, it's about caring. The race trophy is give to Patrick's race entry - a rock.

55B - MID-LIFE CRUSTACEAN
Mr. Krabs realizes that he is getting old. He's not so hip anymore. He overhears Patrick and SpongeBob hyping up a big night out that they're planning and figures that would be a good way to get hip again. He asks the guys if he can come along on their wild night on the town. They show Mr. Krabs a great(?) time…They hit the Laundromat, pick up trash under the highway, and stop at a kids' amusement restaurant. Mr. Krabs realizes that younger or not - they are not any hipper than he is. He tries to leave, but Patrick convinces him to go on their last big event of the night - a panty raid. Finally they're doing something cool…until Mr. Krabs realizes they've raided his own mother's house. He's sent to bed without supper. At least that makes him feel young again.

56A - BORN AGAIN KRABS (fka A PENNY SAVED)
Mr. Krabs refuses to let SpongeBob throw away a moldy Krabby Patty that was festering under the grill. He tries to pawn it off on customers to save the fifty-two cents he would have lost if he threw the patty away. No-one will eat it. Finally, to demonstrate it's still good, Mr. Krabs takes a bite…and ends up hospitalized for food poisoning. The Flying Dutchman comes to take his soul, but Mr. Krabs strikes a bargain with him - let him return to life and prove he's not cheap, and if he fails, he spends eternity in Davey Jones' locker. Well, obviously Mr. Krabs can't be cheap, and the Dutchman returns for the soul. SpongeBob bets his own soul that Mr. Krabs won't be cheap and sell SpongeBob for pocket change - but he does! SpongeBob is whisked away to Davey Jones's locker - but brought back soon after - his inane chatter drives the Dutchman nuts.

56B - SAFETY FREAK (fka I HAD AN ACCIDENT)
SpongeBob, while sand sledding, breaks his butt! Paranoid for his own safety he becomes a hermit and cloisters himself in his house. Sandy and Patrick do all they can to try and get him to come out, but to no avail. Finally, Sandy pretends she is being attacked by a gorilla, played by Patrick in a gorilla suit. As this is playing out, another Patrick walks up - but it's a REAL gorilla in a Patrick Suit! Mayhem ensues, and SpongeBob is forced to come out of his house and rescue his friends.

57A - KRABBY LAND
It's summer break, and Mr. Krabs wants to squeeze every penny out of the children who are out of school. He take a pile of rusty old junk and concocts a playground of sorts, and promises them that if they pay to play and eat Krabby Patties, Krabby the Klown will appear to entertain them. He leaves SpongeBob in charge while he goes to count all the money. Mayhem ensues. SpongeBob and the kids are told that Krabby the Klown is finally here! They rush inside to find Mr. Krabs doing a quick and lousy clown imitation with a tomato on his nose. The kids revolt and get their money back, and Mr. Krabs is forced to eat a truckload of lima beans as punishment.

57B - THE CAMPING EPISODE (fka SQUID GETS MAULED)
SpongeBob and Patrick decide to go camping…in the back yard. Squidward comes out to tell them to be quiet, but takes their innocent "have fun inside the house" comment as a challenge. He sets up camp, and they end up having fun singing a campfire song. But when Squid starts playing his clarinet along, SpongeBob warns him that it's going to lure a sea bear to their camp. He is right! But Squidward ignores every piece of advice given to him by Sponge and Pat until it's too late.

58A - MISSING IDENTITY
SpongeBob has lost his name tag! He has no idea where it has gone. He retraces all of his steps, with "help" from Patrick, but to no avail. His mind and day rapidly deteriorating, he continues to search desperately until, miraculously, Patrick spots the missing identification. SpongeBob has accidentally gone the entire day…with his shirt on backwards.

58B - PLANKTON'S ARMY (fka PLANKTON'S LAST STAND)
It is the 25th anniversary of Plankton's first attempt to steal the Krabby Patty Secret Formula. The entire Krusty Krab crew is on its guard, and foils Plankton at every turn. Plankton, defeated, decides to enlist the help of all of his plankton relatives - all millions of them. They storm the Krusty Krab and take Mr. Krabs by surprise, and finally manage to get the secret formula. But when Plankton gets to the most secret ingredient, he runs screaming, as does his army. The secret ingredient (in this decoy formula that Mr. Krabs set up) was a pound of fresh ground plankton!

59A/B - THE SPONGE WHO COULD FLY (fka VOLCANO PANTS)/PATCHY - THE LOST EPISODE
SpongeBob is jellyfishing when he wistfully realizes that he wants to fly with the jellyfish. He proceeds to come up with numerous ways to fly. He and Patrick try everything from constructing a plane to tying SpongeBob to a kite. All of his efforts are fruitless, and he decided to give up. Then, miraculously, he tucks his hair dryer into his pants while he answers the phone, and his pants inflate. He can fly! He uses his "gift" to fly around town and help people. But the residents of Bikini Bottom get greedy and demand more and more of his time. He realizes that he never wanted the responsibility of being a hero, he just wanted to fly with the jellyfish. His magical pants are destroyed in an attack by the residents, but the jellyfish come to his aid, and he finally gets to fly among them. This episode features a plethora of musical numbers.

60A – SPONGEBOB MEETS THE STRANGLER (fka LITTER BUG)
SpongeBob catches someone littering and turns him in to the police - but it's the Tattletale Strangler! The Strangler escapes custody and disguises himself as SpongeBob's bodyguard, all the while looking for a moment to strangle him. But SpongeBob leads a busy life, and the strangler grows weary. After finally revealing his true identity to SpongeBob, a random chain of events lands him in jail, and SpongeBob is safe.

60B - PRANKS A LOT (fka NAKED PANTS)
SpongeBob and Patrick invest in some magic "invisible spray" at the local prank shop. They strip down and spray themselves - the stuff really works! They go on a major pranking spree, hitting just about everyone in town and getting away with it. It's finally Mr. Krabs that figures them out - and he puts a floodlight on them for the whole town to see. Suddenly the joke is on Patrick and SpongeBob - they have no clothes on!

61A - FEAR OF A KRABBY PATTY
The Krusty Krab is now open 24-hours-a-day, which means that the Krusty Krab employees have to work round-the-clock and without a break. At first the prospect of never leaving work is like a dream come true for SpongeBob. But soon the relentless schedule takes its toll, and SpongeBob develops an inexplicable fear of Krabby Patties preventing him from doing his job. Plankton seizes the opportunity and disguises himself as SpongeBob's psychiatrist in an attempt to extract the patty's secret formula from the stressed-out sponge.

61B – SHELL OF A MAN (FKA "MOLTING")
Mr. Krabs is getting ready for a big reunion with his old seafaring buddies when he suddenly molts his shell. It seems the years of owning a fast food restaurant have taken their toll on Krabs' waist line. And now that his armor-like shell no longer fits, Krabs is left quivering, shell-less, and pink. Afraid that his tough-as-nails friends will only ridicule him, but reluctant to not make an appearance at the get-together, Krabs disguises SpongeBob in his old shell and forces him to go to the reunion in his place.

62A – THE LOST MATTRESS
SpongeBob hears that Mr. Krabs cannot get a good night sleep on his lumpy mattress. So with the help of Patrick and Squidward, SpongeBob buys Krabs a brand new mattress and throws the old one away. Once Krabs learns of the switch, he falls into a "cash coma" - all of Krabs' money was hidden in that old mattress. In order to revive their boss (and avoid possible jail time) SpongeBob, Squid and Pat must retrieve the mattress from the city dump. But first they have to get it past the ferocious guard-worm that's sleeping on top of it.

62B – KRABS VS. PLANKTON
When Plankton slips and falls on some water at the Krusty Krab, he sues Mr. Krabs for failing to post a wet floor sign. If Plankton wins the case, he will be awarded everything that Krabs' owns, including the secret recipe formula. Only one man can defend Krabs, SpongeBob LawyerPants.

63 A/B – HAVE YOU SEEN THIS SNAIL? (1/2 hour)

While trying to beat a paddle-ball world record, SpongeBob forgets to feed Gary - for several weeks. So Gary runs away to downtown Bikini Bottom where he is taken in by a kindly old woman who confuses him with one of her many deceased pets. Once SpongeBob realizes that he has neglected Gary, he sets out in a town-wide search for him. Meanwhile, as Gary is wrapped in comfy blankets and indulged in and endless assortment of snacks, he discovers a very dark secret about this sweet old woman...

64A – SKILL CRANE
When a Skill Crane is installed in the Krusty Krab, Squidward becomes obsessed with winning a stuffed animal from the machine. It's not long before he spends all of his money and the deed to his house on the Skill Crane - and still he can't win anything. Taking pity on his neighbor, SpongeBob, Skill Crane Champion, teaches Squidward his technique. The lesson works, and Squdward finally wins a prize. With his newfound confidence Squid gets a little over zealous, and tries to apply his skills to a real construction crane with disastrous results.

64B – GOOD NEIGHBOR (fka "Security")
It's Sunday in Bikini Bottom, and all Squidward wants to do is enjoy the last few hours of "me time" before the work week begins. But SpongeBob and Patrick continue to intrude on his perfect Sunday with various activities from their Good Neighbor Club. So Squidward installs a high-tech security device designed to keep his "good neighbors" out. But the device malfunctions, mutates Squidward's house into a giant robot, and rampages through the town.

65A – SELLING OUT
Mr. Krabs sells his restaurant to a conglomerate that plans to turn the Krusty Krab into a big corporate chain. At first the sell out brings the kind of peace and quiet Krabs always wanted. But his early retirement quickly turns into nothing more than one boring day after another, and Krabs finds himself living a life without purpose. So he takes a job as a busboy at the Krusty Krab only to find that it has been transformed into a heartless mockery of his former restaurant. With the help of SpongeBob and Squidward, Krabs stages a fast food coup against the new management.

65B – FUNNY PANTS (fka UNFUNNY PANTS)
Squidward has had enough of SpongeBob's incessant laughter, so he tricks his neighbor into believing that SpongeBob has a laugh-related illness. According to the made-up disease, if SpongeBob laughs one more time in the next 24 hours, his laugh box will explode and he will never laugh or giggle again. For the rest of the day, SpongeBob fights every single urge to chuckle. The next morning, SpongeBob discovers that he completely lost the ability to laugh. Now utterly grief stricken, all SpongeBob can do is cry his eyes out. Squidward finally confesses to the forlorn sponge (the weeping was more annoying than SB's giggles), and in the process restores SpongeBob's laugh.

66A/B – DUNCES AND DRAGONS
After a freak jousting accident at a Medieval Times-style restaurant, SpongeBob and Patrick are transported to a medieval version of Bikini Bottom. There they are mistaken for great knights and sent on a quest by King Krabs to rescue his daughter, the Princess Pearl, from the clutches of the evil wizard Planktonamor. To keep them company, the King sends along Squidward, the court jester (who was recently thrown in the dungeon for not being funny). The first obstacle they encounter is the dreaded Black Knight, an ornery squirrel who fights under the spell of Planktonamor. But Sir SpongeBob bests the Black Knight in a brilliant display of Ka-ra-te, and even breaks Planktonamor's hold on her. The Black Knight pledges herself to the heroes' cause, and the group of four marches on to Lord Plankton's lair where they encounter the giant fire-breathing jelly fish. Fortunately Sir SpongeBob has just the thing that will tame the dangerous beast, a krabby patty that he was saving in his pocket for lunch. The knights finally get through Plankton's defenses, save Princess Pearl, and restore peace to the kingdom.

67A – ENEMY-IN-LAW (fka MY WORST FRIEND'S WEDDING)

Mr. Krabs' Mom is dating again, and it seems like things could be serious. Krabs tries to be happy for his mother, but he is absolutely horrified when he learns that the secret paramour is his arch-rival Plankton! Convinced that this just another trick aimed at getting the family formula for Krabby Patties, Krabs tries to reveal Plankton's schemes and breakup the ill-favored fling.

67B – MERMAID MAN & BARNACLE BOY VI
The adventures of Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy are being told in a thrilling new motion picture. But as SpongeBob and Patrick soon learn, their heroes are not in the movie. The real MM and BB were considered too old, so their filmic counterparts will be a couple of young actors that are nothing like the true heroes. SpongeBob is outraged, and he sets out to make his own version of the Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy movie using the real guys fresh from their retirement home.

68A – PATRICK SMARTPANTS (fka ABRACAMORON)
During a day of jelly fishing, Patrick gets conked on the head and loses consciousness. When he comes to, the starfish is suddenly speaking in complete sentences – and making sense! Patrick is now not only smart, he is brilliant. Unfortunately with his superior intellect, Patrick no longer finds joy in jelly fishing, blowing bubbles or telling silly jokes. If SpongeBob does not find a way to turn Patrick back to his old self, he may lose his best friend forever

68B – SQUIDBOB TENTACLEPANTS
Sandy's experimental teleportation device malfunctions, melding SpongeBob and Squidward into one body. This makes working in the kitchen and behind the check out counter at the Krusty Krab a bit of an issue. But Squidward's main concern is his big clarinet recital that's just one day away. Unless Sandy can reverse the effects of her machine, Squidward will have to find a way to hide SpongeBob during his performance.

69A – KRUSTY TOWERS
In another attempt to make more money, Mr. Krabs decides to turn the Krusty Krabs into Krusty Towers, an upscale hotel where the customer is king. This includes even the most obnoxious and demanding customers; whatever they request, The Krusty Krabs/ Krusty Towers crew must obey. This of course pushes Squidward to the point of quitting. But Krabs hasn't seen the last of his disgruntled employee. Squidward returns as a guest, and makes a series of outrageous requests that now Mr. Krabs must obey.

69B – MRS. PUFF, YOU'RE FIRED
Word of SpongeBob's record of failed boating tests has traveled to the top of the boating school industry. With such a huge blight on Mrs. Puff's teaching record, she is fired from her post. SpongeBob learns the reason for his teacher's dismissal. So he tries to convince the powers that be Mrs. Puff is not to blame – SpongeBob is just naturally a terrible driver.

70A – CHIMPS AHOY
The Chimpanzee beneficiaries of Sandy's undersea treedome are paying a visit to see what progress she has made with her inventions. But Sandy doesn't think any of her work will satisfy the chimps, and if they don't like what she's invented Sandy could lose her funding forcing her to leave Bikini Bottom. SpongeBob and Patrick decide to help their distraught friend by taking over her work and finishing her inventions.

70B – GHOST HOST (fka Ghost House)
The Flying Dutchman takes up residence at SpongeBob's house where he proceeds to scare, startle and surprise SpongeBob around the clock. Eventually all the spooky shenanigans grow old, and SpongeBob is no longer afraid of the Dutchman. This creates a panic for the old ghost who now fears that he has lost his scary touch. So SpongeBob decides to lend a hand and help the Flying Dutchman learn to scare people again.

71A - WHALE OF A BIRTHDAY
Mr. Krabs wants to give his daughter Pearl the best birthday ever. While he works on the party, SpongeBob is assigned the task of figuring out what Pearl would like for a present. So he trails her through the Bikini Bottom mall and takes note of everything she thinks is "Coral." Once Pearl arrives at her party she is horrified to find that her dad's miserly ways have won out again. What was supposed to be the most fun and fabulous event ended up cheap and lame. It looks like Pearl's birthday will go down in history as the worst one ever – until SpongeBob shows up with a truck-load of presents. Everything Pearl looked at in the mall was so Coral that SpongeBob bought it all – maxing out Mr. Krab's credit card in the process.

71B - KARATE ISLAND
SpongeBob receives an invitation to take part in a competition on mysterious Karate Island for the chance to be crowned "King of Karate."

72A - ALL THAT GLITTERS (fka OBSESSION)
During an intense day on the job, SpongeBob's spatula breaks mid patty-flip. With his favorite kitchen implement out of commission, SpongeBob searches for a temporary replacement. Enter "Le Spatula," the latest in state-of-the-art cooking tools. The sleek and modern Le Spatula dazzles SpongeBob so completely that he will do anything to own one. But will this fancy gadget fill the void that was left by his old trusty spatula?

72B – WISHING YOU WELL
When a wishing well is installed near the Krusty Krab, Mr. Krabs sends SpongeBob down in a bucket to collect the coins that will be dropped by people making their wishes. SpongeBob figures out that this just a scam, and sets out to make all of the wishes come true.

73A - THE NEW LEAF
In the battle for fast food supremacy, Plankton has decided to throw in the towel and start a new business selling trinkets and souvenir gifts. He even renames his store from The Chum Bucket to The Chumporium. But Mr. Krabs doesn't buy the change for a second. He's determined to prove that this is nothing more than one of Plankton's elaborate schemes aimed at stealing the Krabby Patty formula.

73B - ONCE BITTEN
Gary starts biting everyone in town, starting with Squidward. Squid is convinced that he has a rare snail disease and spreads the word throughout the town. The Snail Bite panic spreads leading to Zombie-like behavior and a manhunt for Gary.

74A – BUMMER VACATION (fka BUMMER SUMMER VACATION)
Mr. Krabs is about to be fined for unfair labor practices. It turns out that in all the years he has been working at the Krusty Krab, SpongeBob has never taken a vacation. So Krabs makes his #1 employee take the day off. But SpongeBob's vacation soon turns into a nightmare. He just can't stand being away from his favorite place. SpongeBob eventually tries infiltrating the kitchen to give the temp help (Patrick) useful tips on flipping patties. But each attempt is thwarted by Mr. Krabs who kicks SB out of the restaurant.

74B – WIG STRUCK (fka WIG STUCK)
SpongeBob finds an old powdered wig in the trash and wears it around town thinking it is the height of all things cool. The townspeople laugh at him, and Mr. Krabs makes him wear a ridiculous hairnet (which only makes SpongeBob even sillier). But nothing can convince him that the wig is anything but cool.

75A – SQUIDTASTIC VOYAGE
When Squidward swallows his clarinet reed Sandy offers to retrieve the piece by shrinking herself and a mini sub down to microscopic proportions and traveling into Squid's body. But to Squidward's horror, SpongeBob and Patrick accidentally end up in the mini-drivers seat of the sub and continue the mission on their own.

75B – THAT'S NO LADY
A misunderstanding over a vacation getaway advertisement causes Patrick to think he must "get out of town" or face dire consequences. SpongeBob can't bear the thought of his best buddy moving away, so he decides to do what he can to hide Patrick's identity from his "pursuers." After many failed attempts at disguises, they finally settle on the perfect one: Patrick is transformed into a girl, Patricia to be exact. Patricia catches the eye of Mr. Krabs and soon she becomes the most charming waitress/waiter at the Krusty Krab.

76A – THE THING
After a freak bicycling accident, Squidward is coated in so much mud, leaves, branches and gunk to make him totally unrecognizable. The residents of Bikini Bottom think that Squidward is some sort of monster come to terrorize the town. But SpongeBob thinks he's kind of cute, so he adopts Squidward and tries to raise him as his pet.

76B - HOCUS POCUS
After practicing all day with his brand new magic kit, SpongeBob tries to impress Squidward with his newfound abilities. Of course Squidward, being the ever reluctant participant, sneaks away without SpongeBob noticing. But what SpongeBob does catch is the ice-cream cone that was left in Squidward's place. Now SpongeBob is panicked and under the impression that he turned his neighbor into the frozen dessert.

77A – DRIVEN TO TEARS (fka DRIVING MR. SQUAREPANTS)
SpongeBob has failed his driving test – again. Pat is so outraged by the injustice of it all that he storms into the testing facility and takes the test to prove that it is an unfair test and impossible to pass. Only Patrick DOES pass, and now he's getting his license. But that's not all. Because Pat is the 1-millionth customer at the DMV, he is awarded a brand new car! SpongeBob tries to be happy for his pal. But watching Pat abuse his driving privilege and disobey common driving 101 rules makes the Sponge's blood boil.

77B – RULE OF DUMB (fka ROYAL PAIN, fka KING PATRICK)
An oversight in a Royal genealogy document revels that Patrick is the next in line to receive a kingly title. It's not long before the power of the crown goes straight to the starfish's head.

78A – BORN TO BE WILD (fka THE WILD ONES)
SpongeBob hears that a ferocious biker gang is coming to town, only no in Bikini Bottom seems bothered by the news. So SpongeBob dons his leather jacket, warms up his bike, and prepares to protect the town all by himself.

78B – BEST FRENEMIES (fka KRABS AND PLANKTON TEAM UP)
A new Kelp Smoothly chain is opening up all over Bikini Bottom. The chain's smoothies are so delicious that soon everyone in town can be seen drinking one. But now that customers already have their smoothy, they don't need to buy a beverage with their Krusty Krab order. This could hurt Mr. Krabs' profits, and if there's one thing he can't stand, it's losing money. So Krabs forms an unlikely alliance with another member of the food service industry, Plankton, and together the two work to infiltrate the Smoothy shop and uncover its secrets.

79A – THE PINK PURLOINER (fka SUSPICION / TO CATCH A STARFISH)
SpongeBob's favorite jellyfishing net is missing! And worst of all, Pat may have been the one that stole it. But SpongeBob can't accuse his friend of anything until he can find some hard evidence that the starfish does indeed have the net.

79B – SQUID WOOD (FKA MINI SQUID)
Rejected yet again by Squidward, SpongeBob decides that if he can't hang with the real Squid, he'll make his own. So SpongeBob builds a ventriloquist dummy modeled after his favorite neighbor. At first Squidward is pleased that SpongeBob is distracted by this mini Squidward . But eventually everyone in town wants to spend time with the dummy preferring it over the real Squidward.

80A – BEST DAY EVER
SpongeBob is going to have the best day ever. First he gets to work at the Krusty Krab. Then he is going to meet Sandy for a little Ka-Ra-Tay, followed by jellyfishing with Pat, and Squidward's clarinet recital. But the day does not go exactly as planned. Each of his friends is having a problem which SpongeBob naturally sets out to solve. But this costs him every item on his perfect agenda. When a disappointed SpongeBob realizes that his entire day has been sacrificed, his friends rally around him to give their thanks and make sure his day really is the best ever.

80B – THE GIFT OF GUM
It's Best Friends Day and SpongeBob and Patrick trade Best Friend presents. SpongeBob presents Pat with a fancy robot, and Patrick gives his favorite Sponge his most prized possession, an enormous ball of used chewing gum. SpongeBob is touched. This gift is the coolest thing in the world. However, once he finally fits the giant wad of gum into his house, it slowly starts to creep him out. Maybe it's the moldy pizza or the smelly sock attached to it, or the fact that the gun is starting to talk to him. Whatever it is, SpongeBob decides that home may not be the best place for this present. But he can't let Pat know that his gift has to go, that would hurt the pink star's feelings. So SpongeBob attempts to steal the gum from his own house and hide it. Of course it turns out to be a far stickier plan than he imagined.

81A/B – FRIEND OR FOE (fka BETWEEN FRIENDS)
Mr. Krabs and Plankton have been business rivals and bitter enemies for longer than anyone can remember. But one day, during another one of Plankton's failed attempts at stealing the Krabby Patty formula, Mr. Krabs reveals that they were not always this way. There was a time when the two rivals were actually the best of friends. Through a series of flashbacks, Mr. Krabs tells the tale of how that great friendship turned sour, and how the Krabby Patty was born in the process.

FRIEND OR FOE SHORT #1

92 A/B – ATLANTIS SQUAREPANTIS
SpongeBob finds the missing half of an ancient medallion believed to be a relic from the lost city of Atlantis. He brings his find to the Bikini Bottom Museum where the other half is on display. The two sides are reunited, and suddenly a magical van appears that beckons to take SpongeBob to the legendary city. Patrick, Sandy, Squidward and Mr. Krabs all join him in the van and head for Atlantis. Each passenger is eager to experience the many riches the city is rumored to contain: Mr. Krabs wants to dive into Atlantis' gold and jewels, Squidward wants to absorb all of the Atlantean culture, Sandy wants to study the advanced technology, and SpongeBob and Patrick just want to see the city's most prized possession, The Oldest Living Bubble. Plankton, who has secretly stowed away in the van's glove compartment, plans to take advantage of Atlantis' weaponry. When the van finally arrives at the city everyone is greeted by Atlantis' king himself, Lord Royal Highness, who spares no time in taking the visitors on a tour. Atlantis proves to be even more wonderful than anyone could have imagined. For SpongeBob and Patrick, their most joy-filled moment arrives when they finally get to behold to the Oldest Living Bubble. This moment is quickly ruined however when a flash from Patrick's camera causes the bubble to burst. Now SpongeBob, Pat, Mr. Krabs, Sandy and Squidward are on the run from the Atlantean Guards. Just to make their escape even more difficult, Plankton emerges with an enormous Atlantean tank. The Atlanteans are instantly in awe of Plankton's diminutive size, so as compensation for bursting the bubble relic, Plankton is offered up as a replacement and put on display at Atlantis' museum. SpongeBob and company return home with memories from their adventure and one souvenir: a photograph of the Oldest Living Bubble.

93A – PICTURE DAY (7-Minute)

96A/B – THE PEST OF THE WEST (fka THE GOOD, THE BAD AND THE SPONGEY)
While researching his family tree SpongeBob discovers that he was related to the great Western hero, and famous chili-slinger, SpongeBuck. The tale of his ancestor's fame begins in the town of Dead Eye Gulch, which used to be called Bikini Gulch before the no-good Dead Eye Plankton came along. Everything in town has been taken over by Dead Eye – everything except Pappy Krabs' Krusty Kantina, the local watering hole where Hopalong Squidward can be found working behind the counter serving customers like Pecos Patrick. But now that Dead Eye has his big ugly eye set on taking over the Krusty Kantina, it looks like all hope is lost for this town…until SpongeBuck arrives. He cheerily announces he's there for the job of chili cook posted in the newspaper, but the townsfolk are so desperate for someone to stand up to Dead Eye that they immediately hire SpongeBuck as their sheriff too! This sponge may not have the experience, the skills, or the smarts to take down Dead Eye, but he's not going to let that stop him from trying!

97A – 20,000 PATTIES UNDER THE SEA
SpongeBob and Mr. Krabs turn an old submarine into a mobile Krusty Krab. Not to be undone by his competitor's new gimmick, Plankton responds with his own traveling Chum Bucket, and the two rival restaurants engage in an undersea battle complete with torpedoes, a giant sea monster and chum.

97B – BATTLE OF BIKINI BOTTOM
When Patrick and SpongeBob discover they have clashing views on cleanliness, their disagreement blows up into an epic battle. Is it possible for a soap-lover like SpongeBob to ever be friends with a dirt-monger like Patrick?

98A /B – WHOBOB WHATPANTS (formerly WHATEVER HAPPENED TO SPONGEBOB?)
When SpongeBob tries to spend some quality time with his friends, he just ends up being a nuisance to everyone instead. They all tell him to go away, so with a heavy heart, SpongeBob decides to do just that – he packs up to leave Bikini Bottom forever. Along the way, SpongeBob takes a nasty tumble and bumps his head, making him lose his memory. He doesn't remember anything, not even his own name. With nothing but a bottle of bubbles in his pocket, SpongeBob stumbles into New Kelp City. Lost and confused, he does the only thing that feels familiar to him – blowing bubbles. But in this town, bubble blowing has been declared illegal, and the law is enforced by a tough and ruthless street gang. SpongeBob uses his bubble-blowing skills to trap the gang in a bubble, which floats them right out of the city. Now that they are freed from the thugs' rule of terror, the citizens of New Kelp City declare SpongeBob their new mayor. Meanwhile, SpongeBob's old friends from Bikini Bottom realize that they miss their yellow buddy, and are desperate to find him and bring him back home. But now that SpongeBob has fame and glory in New Kelp City, will he ever want to go back?

99A – THE TWO FACES OF SQUIDWARD
Squidward is rushed to the hospital when SpongeBob accidentally slams the door on Squidward's face. He undergoes surgery to have his face fixed to look normal again – but things don't go exactly as planned. Instead of looking like his old self again, the surgery has made him incredibly handsome! His dazzling beauty is making everyone in Bikini Bottom fall head over heels for the new Squidward.

99B – SPONGEHENGE
A very windy day in Bikini Bottom is blowing air through SpongeBob's holes resulting in a chorus of pretty flute-like sounds. This attracts all the local Jellyfish who love the music coming out of SpongeBob. But when the Jellyfish become a public nuisance, SpongeBob tries to lure them out of town by moving his home to a faraway cave.

100A – BANNED IN BIKINI BOTTOM
SpongeBob loves Krabby Patties so much, he just can't help singing and dancing when he's around the delicious sandwiches. But Miss Priss, who is against all things fun and delicious, is appalled by his behavior and has Krabby Patties banned from Bikini Bottom!

100B – STANLEY S. SQUAREPANTS
When Stanley, SpongeBob's klutzy, absent-minded cousin, comes to visit Bikini Bottom, he quickly turns SpongeBob's life upside down.

101A – HOUSE FANCY
When Squidward sees Squilliam on a TV show about fancy homes, Squidward becomes enfuriated. Determined not to be outdone by his long-time rival, Squidward calls the TV show's producer and insists they feature his even fancier house on their show. But Squidward quickly realizes that his house isn't exactly camera-ready and he's going to need a lot of help, even if it means letting SpongeBob lend a hand.

101B – KRABBY ROAD
When SpongeBob mistakenly thinks that Plankton is starting a band, Plankton decides to use this to advantage. Soon, he forms a rock band with SpongeBob, Patrick, and Squidward. Plankton's plan: get SpongeBob to write a song about the secret Krabby Patty ingredients, and he will finally have the formula!

102A – PENNY FOOLISH
When Mr. Krabs sees SpongeBob pick something up off the street, he begins to obsess over the idea that SpongeBob found a penny – a penny that he should have found first! Mr. Krabs is determined to get that penny from SpongeBob, no matter what it takes!

102B – NAUTICAL NOVICE
SpongeBob's boating school class is going on a field trip to the nautical museum – a perfect opportunity for SpongeBob to show off his nautical know-how to Mrs. Puff! SpongeBob is convinced that once she sees just how knowledgeable he is about boating history, Mrs. Puff is sure to give him his license! Now all he needs to do is memorize the entire history of boating in one night.

103A – SPONGICUS
Plankton has demolished the Chum Bucket! In its place, he has built a Roman coliseum and announces there will be a gladiator show, which means togas, chariots, and ferocious lionfish. And on top of all that, it's free! No one in Bikini Bottom can resist, not even Mr. Krabs!

103B – SUCTION CUP SYMPHONY (formerly UNDERWATER BOOGILOO)
The Bikini Bottom Symphony is accepting submissions for their composition contest, and Squidward is determined to win. He immediately gets to work on his masterpiece, but when SpongeBob and Patrick keep disrupting Squidward's concentration, it looks like they might ruin his chance at musical stardom.

104A – NOT NORMAL
When Squidward points out to SpongeBob that he's not normal, SpongeBob makes it his mission to become normal. SpongeBob begins to lose all his spongey-ness, and it's not long before he's completely unrecognizable, even to his best friends. Could this be the end of SpongeBob SquarePants as we know him?

104B – GONE
SpongeBob wakes up one morning to find that everyone in Bikini Bottom is gone – even Gary!

105A – THE PATTY CAPER
It's time to restock the secret Krabby Patty ingredient, and it is SpongeBob's duty to make sure the ingredient is delivered safely to the Krusty Krab. But when SpongeBob gets the delivery, he discovers that the secret ingredient has been stolen! SpongeBob has to get to the bottom of this case, or it could be the end of the Krabby Patty.

105B – SUN BLEACHED
Everybody who's anybody is going to a big party in Bikini Bottom, but you have to be a certain shade of tan to get in. SpongeBob and Patrick decide to get tan so they can go to the party, but SpongeBob accidentally goes too far and turns sun-bleached white! Now, not only is he the wrong shade, but he can barely move without cracking and turning to dust.

106A – SLIDE WHISTLE STOOGES
SpongeBob and Patrick are having fun with their new slide whistles, and, of course, it's driving Squidward crazy. But after a while, even Squidward can't deny the fun of the whimsical whistles. Soon, he's tooting on his very own slide whistle all over Bikini Bottom, and he's driving all the people in town berserk!

106B – A LIFE IN A DAY
Everyone is in awe of Larry the Lobster's daredevil ways, especially SpongeBob and Patrick. Patrick decides that it's time for them to start living like Larry, but SpongeBob isn't so sure.

107A – PLANKTON'S REGULAR
Plankton has a customer who loves his chum and eats at the Chum Bucket every day – and no one is more surprised than Plankton. Could this mean competition for the Krusty Krab?

107B – GIANT SQUIDWARD

When Squidward gets spritzed with plant growth spray, he becomes monstrously huge. SpongeBob and Patrick are thrilled because they now have a giant buddy to play games with. But the citizens of Bikini Bottom are terrified of the monster, and they want him out!

108A – PATRICK PICKS A NOSE
When Patrick realizes that he is the only one out of all his friends without a nose, he decides he needs to get a nose, too. At first Patrick is thrilled with all the delightful new smells he can pick up with his super-sensitive nose – until he discovers that there are a lot of bad smells out there, too. Patrick soon finds stinky odors everywhere, even in his friends' homes, and he sets out to destroy them all.

108B – THE SPLINTER
While working at the Krusty Krab, SpongeBob accidentally gets a splinter. When Squidward mentions that Mr. Krabs will have to send him home for his work-related injury, SpongeBob becomes desperate to get the nasty splinter out before he's forced to go home early. But the stubborn splinter just won't budge.

109A – GROOMING GARY
SpongeBob decides to enter Gary in a pet show, but when he sees how well-groomed and well-dressed the other pets are, he realizes that he needs to give Gary a makeover. But Gary isn't so keen on being primped and made into a pretty show snail, and as it turns out, neither are any of the other pets in the pet show.

109B – BOATING BUDDIES
In an attempt to get away from SpongeBob, Squidward drives off in his boat as fast as he can. But he's stopped in his tracks when he's pulled over by a cop and is ordered to go to boating school. Now Squidward has to sit next to SpongeBob in class all day long – and SpongeBob couldn't be happier!

110A – THE CARD
The new Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy trading cards are on sale, and SpongeBob is determined to get the super special rare talking card, no matter how many packs of cards he needs to buy to find it. He buys packs upon packs of cards, but no luck. But when Patrick buys just one pack, he immediately finds the rare card without even trying! And to make matters worse, Patrick doesn't treat the card with the care and respect that SpongeBob believes it deserves.

110B – THE KRABBY KHRONICLE
When Mr. Krabs notices that the citizens of Bikini Bottom love buying tabloid newspapers, he decides to begin another business venture – his own tabloid! He recruits SpongeBob as his writer, but SpongeBob doesn't feel comfortable making up stories about other people because that would make him a liar. But Mr. Krabs assures him that making up stories for the paper isn't lying, it's using your imagination! SpongeBob discovers that making up stories about the people in Bikini Bottom is a lot of fun – but the people he's writing about don't think so.

111A/B - ENDLESS SUMMER (working title – official title TBD)
While trying to sell Krabby Patties to hungry surfers in the waters of Goo Lagoon, SpongeBob, Patrick, Squidward and Mr. Krabs are swept away by a giant wave. Mr. Krabs is carried off into the haunted waters of the Dutchman's Triangle, and the other three find themselves stranded on a remote tropical island. SpongeBob, Pat and Squidward travel to the heart of the island where they meet an enigmatic surf guru named Jack Kahuna Laguna. Jack tells them that the only way back to Bikini Bottom is to surf the legendary wave called The Big One. The bad news - this wave only comes once in a lifetime. The good news – The Big One is coming in just a matter of days. And the other bad news – they don't know how to surf!

112A – THE SLUMBER PARTY

Pearl's getting ready for her slumber party, but Mr. Krabs' meddling in the party preparations is getting out of control. Pearl forces him out of the house and orders him to stay at SpongeBob's house until the party's over.
